Shayne Beeler

Shayne has been involved in swimming with the Parkland Pirates and Spruce Grove Barracudas serving in various coordinator roles on both summer and year-round swim clubs as a parent volunteer. Notably Shayne has found great fulfillment working through the officiating pathway and volunteering as a referee.

Shayne has been repeatedly inspired by the contributions of our “swim family” volunteers in Alberta and is excited to contribute to our sport with like-minded peers, with a shared vision of making the sport of competitive swimming as strong as it can possibly be in our province.

Shayne brings 15 years of experience as a Canadian Mortgage Professional and is currently a franchise owner of a successful mortgage brokerage responsible for leading a team of Mortgage Associates in sales as well as assisting with day-to-day operations.
